JAMES KINSEY AND MARGARET SHELTON KINSEY

James Kinsey was born January 4, 1874, in Burton-On-Trent, England, son of George Kinsey, Sr., and Eliza Bates. Married Margaret Shelton August 20, 1901. Died June 26, 1916, at Petrola, California. Buried in Midway.

Margaret Shelton. Born June 12, 1875, Midway, daughter of John and Mary Morton Shelton.

Margaret was the fourth child of a family of five; Mary Jane, Elizabeth, John Jr., Margaret and Stephen. Margaret was just five years of age when the little family was deprived of their mother, who passed away in February of 1880 at Wanship.

Margaret found a welcome home with Aunt Polly Fausett, a half sister to John Shelton. She lived with Aunt Polly until 15 years of age, and then felt the necessity of providing for herself. However, she visited and stayed with Aunt Polly whenever circumstances permitted.

She worked as a housekeeper for three dollars a week at Park City, planning successfully until enough money was saved to complete a dressmaking course, thus making it possible for her to earn her living as a seamstress.

After her marriage to James Kinsey of Park City, they made their home at Park City for the following ten years where the husband worked as a carpenter and mill employee.

In 1911 they sold their home in Park City and purchased a home and farm in Midway. Here they found complete happiness and contentment.

Happily entwined in the years of being a wonderful mother was twenty-two years as a Primary worker and thirty-five years as a Relief Society worker. She taught her boys to pray and to attend to their church duties.

Sadness came to the little Kinsey family. On May 18, 1916, James went to California to work on a tunnel contract he had taken from Walker Brothers of Salt Lake City. His contract was successfully finished, and he was proud and eager to return home to obtain a larger contract and take more men back with him. Suddenly he was taken ill and rushed to the hospital at Petrola, California, where he died.

Being left with a small family, ranging in ages from one to thirteen it was necessary for all to work together, and they did. The boys found whatever work they could befitting their ages. Margaret took in washing but this proved to be strenuous. So she turned to nursing and helping in many homes when new babies arrived.

She enjoyed composing poetry and reciting poems. She had a good memory to tell stories to her relatives and friends.

Singing was one of her hobbies, she and her husband enjoyed singing in the ward choir. A very special hobby was collecting and composing poetry. She spent many evenings telling stories and experiences to her little family of boys, the stories always having a special lesson and moral.

Fourth president of Wasatch Stake was David A. Broadbent. His counselors were H. Clay Cummings and Don Clyde. Charles N. Broadbent continued as stake clerk.

President Broadbent's call as stake president continued until 1937 when he was called by Church authorities, along with his family, to preside over the North Central States Mission. A public testimonial prior to his leaving was given by the community on July 19, 1937. He was praised as an enthusiastic and efficient leader, working for the good of the people both in civic and spiritual endeavors.

With the release of President Broadbent to fill his mission appointment, Henry Clay Cummings was called to be the new president. He chose as his counselors Don Clyde and Nephi Probst. Charles N. Broadbent continued as stake clerk. Mr. Clyde served until 1948 when he moved to Provo. Nephi Probst was sustained as the new first counselor and Welby Young was called as second counselor.

In 1950 Charles N. Broadbent and his wife were called to serve as missionaries in California, necessitating his release as clerk. This brought to a close 31 years of continuous service as Wasatch Stake Clerk. Floyd Kinsey was sustained as the new clerk.

President Cummings served until 1958 when he was released. The Wasatch Wave of Nov. 20, 1958, reported the release as follows:

"President H. Clay Cummings of Wasatch Stake, his counselors and clerk were released from duty during Sunday morning conference, Nov. 16, 1958, after long years of service to Church and community. Named to succeed him was J. Harold Call, prominent local attorney and faithful Church worker. President Cummings has served 31 years in the stake presidency, 22 of them as stake president.

"Wasatch Stake has made great strides during the years he has served, and for this he has always given full credit to stake and ward workers. The stake is debt free and has a comfortable balance in both welfare and maintenance accounts.

Serving as the fifth president of Wasatch Stake was Henry Clay Cummings. Counselors to him were Don Clyde, Nephi Probst and Welby Young. Floyd Kinsey was the stake clerk.

These men included George Fisher, forest ranger; Nephi Forman, Edd Moulton, James McNaughton, Fred G. Carlile, Charles Anderson, Henry McDonald, Alvin Johnston, Charles Carlile, Jessie Nelson, Dolphia Sessions, Hyrum Anderson and Forest Luke. Charlie and Hyrum Anderson were not ward members, but were experienced timber men and so were asked to head the project.

The actual work of building the meeting house began March 16, 1914, with James Heber Moulton as construction supervisor. Members of the building committee included John H. Luke, Elisha Cummings, John W. Giles, John D. Fisher, Joseph A. Murdock, David A. Broadbent, James H. Moulton, Joseph A. Rasband, William A. Davis, Harry Morris, John E. Moulton, Henry L. McMullin and John W. Crook.

Working together, the members of the ward were able to put up the building in record time. By December 26, 1915 the building was ready for dedication. It was built to seat 400 people, and on the day of dedication, 390 persons were in attendance to hear Elder Frances M. Lyman of the Council of the Twelve offer the dedicatory prayer.

In his financial report, Bishop Rasband noted that the entire cost of the building, with furnishings, was $19,415.74. For its time, it was considered the finest church building in the stake. Because of its central location, the Second Ward Chapel has been a favorite gathering place for community and civic functions.

With the building now nearly 50 years old, and with the need for a larger, more modern building, the bishopric is again making the ward "building fund conscious," and in the near future it is expected that another beautiful chapel will be constructed.

When Bishop Rasband was released in 1926, Henry Clay Cummings was called as the next bishop. He chose George Nelson and Leonard Giles as counselors and Dean Fortie as clerk. They served together until 1928 when Bishop Cummings was called to be a counselor in the Stake Presidency of the Wasatch Stake. Fredrick G. Carlile was sustained as the new bishop and he retained George Nelson and Leonard Giles as counselors. Reed Rasband later served as a counselor and J. Sylvan Rasband and Albert Crook were clerks.

Wendell Duke succeeded Bishop Carlile in 1939 and had as counselors Squire Simpson and Owen Buell with Jay McNaughton as clerk. They served together until 1944 when Leonard Giles was called as Bishop. Counselors to Bishop Giles included George Nelson, Robert S. Watson, Rulen Carlile, Walter Seiter and Floyd Kinsey. Clerks during this time were Rulen Carlile, Floyd Kinsey, Walter Seiter and Glen Moulton.

Bishop Nymphus C. Watson was sustained in 1951 with counselors Rulen Carlile and Walter Seiter. Glen Moulton was clerk. This bishopric served until 1954 when the ward was divided, creating the new Heber Fifth Ward. The dividing line between the two wards was an-

JEREMIAH W. MAHONEY

Jeremiah Worthington Mahoney, known to his many friends as "Jerry" or "Worth," was born in Coalville, Utah, May 25, 1864, to Louisa Phippen and Jeremiah Mahoney.

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

He had one brother, Elmer. His father died when he was four years old. When he was six his family moved to Wanship and two years later to Heber. Since that time until his death he resided in Wasatch County. At one time they lived about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles south of the present location of Jordanelle. The spring he was 10 he went with his stepfather, Henry Walker, and his brother, Jim Walker, to obtain timber from the place where the New Park mine is now located. The snow was $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 4 feet deep, but the three of them got out enough timber for the frames of three barns. That same year he went with his stepfather and uncles with a load of four to Park City. He recalled that at that time (1874) there were but few buildings there, Park City being largely a tent city.

When he was about 12, the family moved to a ranch on the Provo River about $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles east of Hailstone. At the age of 14 he went to work at the Will Moulton ranch, now known as Lee's Ranch. From that time on he was self-supporting. He helped to construct the road from Soapstone to Provo River and was the first to drive a load of lumber over the road with a yoke of cattle. He helped to get the timber down the river and later haul it to Park City.

In 1884 he married Sarah E. Giles. They had four children: Verna M. Mahoney (Hicken), W. LeRoy Mahoney, Sarah Mabel Mahoney Burgener, and one child who died in infancy. His wife, Sarah, died in 1901. During this period he worked in the old Ontario Drain Tunnel from the Judge mine in Park City. On January 20, 1904, he married Lottie Malinda Hicken in the Salt Lake Temple. To this union was born seven children: Vestus Addison, Madge Mahoney Brierley, Alta Mahoney Tippets, Denton Mahoney, Errol Mahoney, LaMar (died an infant) and Cleofa M. Denbow.

From 1910-1912 he filled a mission for the LDS Church to the Northwestern States. After returning home he became interested in the sheep and cattle business and continued in this line until he retired.

He served a term as city councilman and was always very interested in the welfare of the community.

ruary 14, 1958, at the age of 93. He was a High Priest in the Church.

Lottie Malinda Hicken Mahoney (second wife) was born at Heber, Utah, on September 20, 1879, daughter of Addison and Elizabeth Moulton Hicken. As a young girl she learned dressmaking and practiced it for some time. She is most active in the Church. She served as secretary-treasurer of Heber Third Ward Relief Society and is still very active at 79, never missing a meeting, Sacrament, Sunday School, Mutual or Relief Society. An active Relief Society teacher over 40 years, she lives alone and does all her own work and entertains her family on occasion.

First wife:

Sarah Elizabeth Giles Mahoney, daughter of Mary Ann Moulton and Frederick Giles, was born December 21, 1864, and died at 37 on December 21, 1901. Wasatch County was her home all her life. As a young woman she taught school at Heber City. She later lived at the Moulton Ranch, owned by her uncle, William Moulton. It was here she met J. W. Mahoney and they were later married.

After her marriage she lived at the Walker Ranch on Provo River about four years, then moved to Elkhorn, now known as Keetley, where she lived the next 10 years. She then returned to Heber City, where she lived until her death.

She was a true Latter-day Saint, working when her health would permit in all the organizations of the Church. For some time, when she lived at Keetley, she was at the head of the Sunday School, which was held in the schoolhouse, a short distance from our home.

She was also an accomplished seamstress, and did beautiful work in crocheting, knitting and painting. - 419
